Charles Corbin, Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer for Hilton Grand Vacations, has been appointed Chief Development Officer in addition to his current position.

Because, you know, he didn't already have enough to do. 😊

As CDO, Corbin will oversee HGV's development, architecture and construction teams. He has held this role as interim since October 2017, and led the development team in establishing HGV's first two resorts in Japan and its first resort in the highly demanded U.S. market of Charleston, South Carolina.

Prior to Hilton, Corbin held multiple senior leadership positions, including in-house counsel for Sunrise Senior Living, Inc. and The Mills Corporation. In addition, he had a successful career as a trial lawyer and partner in a law firm based in Washington, D.C. Corbin also cofounded a venture capital fund that invested in high-technology and commercial real estate.

Corbin holds a juris doctorate from University of Dayton School of Law and a bachelor's degree from The Citadel.

Lisa Jurinka has been appointed Chief Legal Officer for Vacasa, the largest US vacation rental management company.

Jurinka will oversee global legal affairs for Vacasa, helping the company scale to its next phase of growth. Bringing expertise in IPO readiness, Jurinka has built her career providing legal guidance for high-growth technology companies. She was instrumental in the transition from the private to public markets for Epocrates Inc., a medical tools software provider, and CafePress Inc., an online marketplace. Most recently, Jurinka served as senior vice president and general counsel for Jive Software, a publicly traded software company purchased by Aurea in 2017.

Jurinka began her legal career at Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, in their New York and Palo Alto offices. She has a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.
